

PROCLAMATION

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

BY THE

Gouvernor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, there was passed at the regular session of the Forty-second Legislature Senate Bill Number 509, being "AN ACT amending Section 12, Chapter 67, Acts, Fifth Called Session, 41st Legislature by reappropriating the balance of the original appropriation remaining unexpended, for providing adequate hospital facilities on the Goree and Wynne prison farms, respectively; and declaring an emergency;" and

WHEREAS, said bill has been vetoed for certain reasons stated and on file in the office of the Secretary of State, among which reasons are the following:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
June 10, 1931

Senate Bill Number 509 provides that the unexpended balance of an appropriation made by the Forty-first Legislature for additional hospital facilities for the Goree and Wynne prison farms be expended during the coming biennium for the same purpose, and provides that the State Prison Board shall immediately proceed to build additional structures on these two farms.

I am vetoing this bill for the reason that the present financial condition of the State does not warrant the expenditure of this fund at this time.

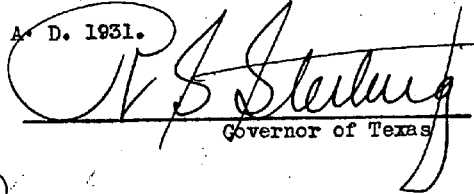

This bill is hereby vetoed.

R. S. Sterling
Governor of Texas

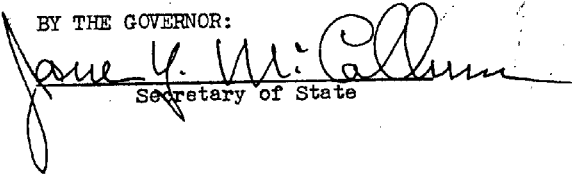

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT I, R. S. STERLING, Governor of the State of Texas, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State, have vetoed said bill for the reasons stated and on file, and do hereby proclaim said action to have been taken.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin, Texas, this the 10th day of June,

A. D. 1931.

Governor of Texas
